.....she refused to change her clothes.

She sat by the fire all night.

In the morning she had a high temperature and was delirious.

We thought she was mad.

She was ill for many months. She went to Thrushcross Grange to get better where both Mr and Mrs Linton caught her fever and died. Catherine became prouder and more violent in temper. The doctor said she had to do what she wanted because there was a risk that she might have a fit which would be dangerous for her health.

A few months after her recovery Edgar Linton married her . Catherine persuaded me to go with her to live at Thrushcross Grange and there she was a much nicer person. She seemed very fond of Edgar and she was affectionate to his sister too.

Six months passed by peacefully.

Heathcliff comes back

One evening I was in the garden when I heard a voice behind me.

"Is that you Nelly?"

I turned and by the light of the moon I recognized Heathcliff.

"What?" I cried . "You've come back!"

"Yes!" came the answer. "Where is she ? I must see her..."
