

Place & Time Prepositions

Place prepositions

- IN PLACES (inside) «I am IN the restaurant»
Countries, cities, continents
- AT PLACES (not precisely/nearby) «I am AT the restaurant»
- TO MOVEMENT H  R «I am going TO the restaurant»
- ON SURFACES (floor, roads) « I live ON the third floor»

Exceptions with «TO»

- No TO in these cases:

1. HOME « Mum is coming back + Home»

2. To ARRIVE: « John arrived IN London»

«John arrived AT Termini station»

3. «We are going ON holiday» (holiday is not a place)

Can you tell me
why?

Let me check a sec !

1. Where is Peter? He is walking.....the road.
2. Hans lives.....Germany.
3. I have just arrived.....the airport.
4. I'm not going.....home tonight.
5. The cat is.....home.
6. The parcel arrived.....the U.S. yesterday.
7. I don't want to goschool.
8. We live.....Rome.

«On».....folly

• We also use «ON» with means of transport:

1. I'm ON the plane
2. I'm ON the train
3. I'm ON the boat
4. I'm ON the bus

5. I'm IN the car .

BUT WE SAY...

Why?

Because you need to bend to slip inside the car and you cannot stand inside! I'm not joking!!!
